Agency 03 - Legislative Council Program 123 - Clerk Of The Legislature

Program Objectives:

Subprogram 123-01 provides primary support for the year-around operation of the Legislature's chief administrative officer. Included are funds for the preparation and compilation of legislative documents and for preserving and distributing information on the results of each session as well as interim activity.

Subprogram 123-03 provides a large share of the administrative support for each regular session of the Legislature and Special Sessions as necessary. This includes the printing of bills and amendments, preparation of materials which ultimately become the permanent legislative records, support of legislative floor activity, including chamber automation system, and the voting system, legislative security and legislative bill storage.

Agency 03 - Legislative Council Program 126 - Legislative Research Division

Program Objectives:

The objective of program 126-11 is 1) to provide public policy and legal research to the members of the Legislature and legislative staff in support of the Legislature's policy-making role; 2) to do program evaluations in conjunction with the work of the Legislative Program Evaluation Committee; 3) to provide administrative support, including editing and desktop publishing, for the foregoing two functions. Based on performance measures, the primary goals of the Research Division are to maintain or increase usage by senatorial offices and to equalize the distribution of usage of the office among all senators.

The objective of Program 126-12 is to provide a full range of library services in the area of public policy in support of the activities of the Nebraska Legislature.

Performance Measures:

For program 126-11, the number of research requests received and completed by the office in FY1998-1999 and FY1999-2000 were 463 and 479 respectively.

During FY1998-1999, requests for research were received from 42 out of 49 senatorial offices (86 percent) and four of the divisions of the Legislative Council. Of the total number of requests received during the fiscal year, requests from senators accounted for 82 percent while requests from the divisions of the Legislative Council and "other sources" (primarily NCSL, the Council of State Governments and other states) accounted for .8 percent and 17.2 percent respectively. The 10 senatorial offices with the highest usage (20 percent of the total number of senators) accounted for 46 percent of the total requests for research received.

Governor's Recommendation Includes:

The Governor's recommendation for Program 126 is included in Program 122.

Agency 03 - Legislative Council Program 127 - Revisor Of Statutes

Program Objectives:

The Revisor of Statutes and Bill Drafting Division of the Legislative Council performs two primary functions: 1) Is responsible for preparing and publishing supplements and reissued and replacement volumes to the statutes as directed by the Legislature. Pursuant to Chapter 49, article 7, and section 50-402, a contract is negotiated to edit, print, bind, and publish supplements and reissued volumes to the statutes. 2) This division aids and assists members of the Legislature and the executive departments of the state in the preparation of bills, amendments, resolutions, and other related measures. As provided by section 50-402 and the Rules of the Nebraska Unicameral, all bills and major amendments are to be approved as to form and draftsmanship by this division prior to introduction.

Agency 03 - Legislative Council Program 504 - Office Of Public Counsel

Program Objectives:

The Office of the Public Counsel (Ombudsman) operates pursuant to the Public Counsel Act, Neb. Rev. Stat. Sections 81-8,240 thru 81-8,254. The essential function of the Office pursuant to the Act is to receive, investigate and attempt to resolve citizens' miscellaneous complaints relating to administrative agencies of state government. The Ombudsman's Office also responds to citizen requests for general information relating to the operation of government and participates in interim studies in cooperation with other Legislative Divisions and Senators' staff. By the terms of the Nebraska State Government Effectiveness Act of 1993 (Sections 81-2701, et. seq.), the Public Counsel's Office has a central role in protecting whistleblowers who report wrongdoing or mismanagement in state government.

Total Agency	510,112	612,106	675,645	0	703,441	0

Performance Measures:

One way to measure the success of the Ombudsman's Office is by simply looking at the size and dynamism of its caseload. Continued growth in the caseload of the Ombudsman's Office is very important because a larger case load means that the Office will have an enhanced opportunity to achieve its fundamental objectives. Thus, the simple fact of growth in the caseload of the Ombudsman's Office can be considered as some measure of the success of the program.

Governor's Recommendation Includes:

The Governor's recommendation for Program 504 is included in Program 122.

Agency 03 - Legislative Council

Program 638 - Fiscal And Program Analysis

Program Objectives:

Program 638 provides for the financing of the Legislative Fiscal Office, whose primary function is to provide staff assistance to the Legislature in particular, as provided in statute, to the Appropriations Committee during their deliberations in formulating a budget recommendation to the Legislature.

1. Provide objective, independent and professional financial and program analysis of past, current, and proposed state agency operations.
